

New Downtown Border Walking Path

Downtown is developing a new look to their unique Border City situation. Visitors not only have the towering survey stakes to recognize the Alberta-Saskatchewan border but now have a new refurbished walking path. The path is being created right downtown. Visitors can now put one foot in each province at the same time. Here are some pictures of the new walking path and existing border markers "Downtown".

